Issue 27

Headteacher's message

Dear Parents and Carers,

Thank you again for the ongoing commitment of our HSPTA committee and for the support given to the school to develop the school learning environment both in the classroom and outside on our school grounds. We are currently in the process of buying some new resources and will continue to update you on these new developments as they happen. Just a reminder as well if you know anyone or have access to any logs or trunks that are at least 40cm in diameter please get in touch via the school office.

Hiltingbury Junior School and Infant School children came together for an inspiring Eco Team brainstorming session this week. The new Government guidance 'Sustainability and Climate Change strategy' has inspired our school community day theme as it is something that we both recognise as an important school development priority. Exciting ideas and plans were shared between both pupil voice groups with the aim of tackling sustainability, climate change and biodiversity loss for a more sustainable future for our school community. Our ongoing aims, as set out in the policy, are to give all children, young people and adults the knowledge and skills to thrive in the green economy and to help restore nature. If you feel you could offer support to the school in this development please contact the school office.

Thank you to two of our Governors, Simon and Liza, who visited school today to see how our new curriculum projects in year 3 and 5 were going. Simon, who went on the year 5 trip to Hiltingbury Lakes said that the children were really passionate about their new projects and enjoyed the practical hands-on geography activities. It was also a great way to engage in the local community and drive the school's sustainability strategy. Liza stayed in school and enjoyed a science and reading lesson in year 3. The reading journey has enabled the children to explore their feelings towards events and characters and they really took on the challenges in the science lesson being able to apply their understanding of light and different materials.

Next week we will say a fond farewell to our year 5 cohort and staff from across the school. We hope you all enjoy every minute of this adventurous week and we look forward to hearing about all of the new memories you have made.

We hope you all enjoy a lovely bank holiday weekend.

Best wishes,

Zoe Loosemore
